How often do you like to read?
“I love to read, so I try to read something ‘enjoyable’ every day. I try to squeeze in at least ten minutes reading every day.”

What do you like to read?
“I like all books and literary magazines, though I especially like creative non-fiction. . . . authors like Joyce Carol Oats or Joan Didion are amazing. I also love local publications like “Overland” or “The Lifted Brow”. It’s always great reading about local issues and ideas.”

List one book that has left a lasting impression on you and explain why it’s memorable . . . .

“One of my favourite books is “Dead Europe” by Christos Tsiolkas. He is a phenomenal writer, and after reading this book, I’ve either bought it or lent it to so many of my friends and family.
